Mr. Von Schepke had served a period of thirty-four years in the army and Marine Corps, and made excellent records in both branches of the service. Educated in the gymnasium in Germany, he subsequently entered the German army, and following this he served for a time in the French service. When young he came to this country and gave his life work to the service of his adopted land. He was highly esteemed by all who knew him, being well educated, of very kindly ways and was believed to be a member of a well-known family in his native land.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER. Verdict of Jury in Case of William

William Snowden, colored, on trial Monday and yesterday in Criminal Court No. 2. under an indictment alleging murder, has been convicted of manslaughter. The verdict was reported late yesterday afternoon, the jury having required about half an hour to reach the conclusion.

Snowden caused the death of Florence Marshall, a colored girl, twelve years of age, Sunday evening, the 30th of June last, by shooting her. The defendant claimed that he was flourishing a pistol for the purpose of frightening Mamie Davis. The weapon was discharged accidentally, the builet striking the Marshall girl, who was standing some distance back of Snowden. A coroner's jury exonerated the defendant from responsibility for the killing, but he was arrested, indicted and placed on trial. The shooting occurred in O'Brien's court between 20th and 21st, E and F streets. The maximum penalty for manslaughter is imprisonment in the penitentiary for ten

A quiet wedding took place yesterday at noon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. O'Meara, when their granddaughter. Miss Irene Violet Cahill, became the bride of Mr. A. Millidge Hartsfield of Georgia. No invitations were issued on account of the illness of the bride's mother. The parlors were adorned with roses, paims and smilax. Rev. Donald C. MacLeod, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, performed the ceremony, which was attended only by the immediate relatives. The bride wore an imported white lace robe over taffeta, with diamond ornaments, and carried bride roses. The Lohengrin march was played by Miss Blanche Harbin. A wedding breakfast followed. The table was decorated with roses, candelabra and fern sprays. The couple left in the afternoon for an extended northern trip and will stop en route at New York and Atlantic City. The bride's goingaway gown was of gray cloth with hat and furs to match. After January 1 they will be at home to their friends at 227 B street. WHITE. Mr. Whitney's ball last night at his New York home, to mark the debut of his step-daughter, Miss Adelaide Randolph, was a magnificent affair and seems to have eclipsed all of the host's previous entertainments. A cotillion was danced after supper, when Mr. Baldwin led with the ceoutante and Craig Wadsworth with Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney. At the first figure a huge automobile, managed by a chauffeur, moved around the ball room swiftly and gracefully. Miniature automobiles for the girls and automobile caps for the men were distributed from the machine. Venetian bead chains and walking sticks, wands and hunting horns, puff bags and sashes, and hunting horns, puff bags and sashes, and sachet muffs and flowers and bronze cigarette cutters were the other favors. The debutante wore white tulle and lilies of the valley. She is a handsome girl and is highly accomplished. The Austrian minister and wife and the Misses Lefter were present among the 700 guests. Miss Alma Portner and Miss Etta Portner, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Portner, made their debut at a tea yesterday, when a large company of old and new friends bade them a delightful welcome.
